GERMAN COAL MAGNATES STILL FIRM

Say Will Obey Orders Not to Deliver Coal

Next Move It Not Up To French—Ultimatum To Germany Expires At Four o'Clock Today.

(By The Associated Press)
DUSSELDORF, Jan. 17.—Representatives of the German magnates failed to appear this morning before the control commission sending word they had decided to obey instructions of the Berlin government instead of the French orders as to coal deliveries, thus placing the next move squarely up to the French occupying authorities. The ultimatum delivered to the industrial leaders yesterday ordering them to resume coal deliveries under penalties expires at 4 o'clock today. No action will be taken by the French until the full 24 hour from the delivery of the ultimatum has elapsed.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN DORTMUND.
(By The Associated Press)
DORTMUND, Jan. 17.—Demonstrations by nationalists in the streets of Dortmund last night caused clashes with communist labor elements but intervention by the French was not necessitated.

FRENCH TO WORK MINE.
(By The Associated Press)
ESSEN, Jan. 17.—The French occupational authorities announced this afternoon that they will begin operating the mines of the Ruhr district tomorrow requisitioning German labor if necessary. The Ruhr coal and industrial magnates who refused to co-operate with the French will be prosecuted before a court martial.

NO FURTHER MILITARY MOVEMENT
(By The Associated Press)
DUSSELDORF, Jan. 17, 5:30 P. M.—It was officially announced by General De Goutte this afternoon that military operations of the Ruhr occupation now were completely finished.

The French will take possession of the mines in the district tomorrow morning, placing military guards at the head of every pit. The Ruhr magnates were informed today that their property will be confiscated and worked under French management for the benefit of the Reparations account.

Harrison Is Quiet After Clean-Up

One Lynched, One Wounded and 200 Ordered to Leave Town by Vigilante Committee.

(By The Associated Press)
HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 17.—Harrison today assumed its normal atmosphere after two days of intense excitement, the result of "armed action" by citizens gathered here from a radius of 150 miles in which one man was lynched, another wounded during a "round up" of alleged strike leaders and more than 200 persons were ordered to leave the community by a committee of one thousand.

Further trouble was not expected to follow the "clean up" of persons believed to be guilty of or to have had knowledge of bridge burnings and other depredations along the line of the Missouri and North Arkansas railway which precipitated the demonstration.

The body of A. C. Greer, alleged striking shopworker, was found hanging from a trestle yesterday. Greer is said to have been a member of a committee which sought Monday night to question men regarding the identity of persons suspected of carrying on sabotage.

Harding In Bed; Condition Not Bad

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—President Harding cancelled all engagements today to remain in bed on account of an attack of grippe. It was said at the White House that this decision on merely as a precautionary measure and that his condition showed no bad development. Secretary Christian, after a visit to the president's room said his chief felt "very little worse" than he did yesterday when he left the cabinet meeting, but that he spent the rest of the day lying down. He has had a deep cold for several days.

Norfolk's New Population Is Estimated at 159,089

(By The Associated Press)
NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 17.—The population of Norfolk will be 159,089 on July 1, according to estimates made by the United States Census Bureau today. Dr. F. S. and forwarded to the Bureau of Public Welfare of this city. The bureau made a check of census figures as soon as the city took over its annexed territory.

The official figures exceed the estimates made by individuals by several thousands. Where city officials and others considered the addition of the new territory would hardly bring the city above the 150,000 mark, the bureau has been more liberal and its forecast puts the number of residents at nearly 10,000 more than even the most sanguine expected.

REVOKE MANY LIQUOR PERMITS

Good Morning Judge!

It was a docket of less than half a dozen cases which confronted the mayor this morning at the daily session of the police court. All of these were for trivial charges.

Ed King, colored, was assessed six dollars and costs for beating Blanche King King had undertaken to be what his name implied—King of the house—but it proved his undoing, for when he tried to dictate to Blanche, trouble started, for the negroes would not stand for it. This led to the alleged assault. King came in to breakfast yesterday morning and when he had finished he asked Blanche for thirty-five cents. The negroes refused to give the money to him and she alleged he tossed a lump of coal at her. But King proved to be the hard loser and the missile missed its object. A brick was then thrown but Blanche was a good dodger and she again saved herself. She claims Ed then struck her several times. Ed denies the assault but admitted asking for the money and being refused. He says when he approached the negroes she threw a handful of coal to the floor and that he left. Blanche claims Ed picked up some of the money before he left. But, anyway, Ed is six dollars, plus costs, out.

The case of Tom Odum, colored, charged with violating the Mapp act, was continued until next Wednesday.

Lullie Eazze and Joe Harrison, colored, will be tried Thursday on charges of creating a disturbance.

Essex White, colored, charged with removing property from a car which does not belong to him, denies that he did so, but the case was set for tomorrow in order to allow an officer to ascertain whether he did or not.

Dr. Peacock Is In St. Petersburg

(By The Associated Press)
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 17.—Dr. J. W. Peacock was ordered out of the North Carolina criminal department of the North Carolina state prison, arrived in St. Petersburg last night. He cannot leave the state where he spent yesterday. He recently adjudged sane after an investigation at Arcadia and then came up a job in a lumber camp where he had been working since August.

Dr. Peacock escaped from the asylum August 29 and came to this state. He worked hard here and exhibited hands covered with callous places. He said he expects to tour Florida and then chose a place in which to live. He is making no effort to hide his name, but he said he could get back to North Carolina and not be taken in custody. Dr. Peacock was committed to the asylum after killing a policeman at his Thomasville home.

Young Teacher Is Victim of "Flu"

The funeral of Miss Winnie Holland, who died near Design from pneumonia following influenza, was conducted yesterday from her home. She was only seventeen years of age and was a school-teacher, generally esteemed and beloved by the entire neighborhood. She fell a victim of the widespread influenza epidemic and pneumonia followed immediately. In her weakened state she was unable to resist it and she gradually grew worse.

Rev. S. L. Jones conducted the services at Design church at two o'clock yesterday. The pall-bearers were: W. H. Talley, E. T. Geisner, E. R. Clayton, J. G. Cole, L. C. Burnett and Archie Hall. The flower-bearers were Katie Burnett, Minnie Burnett, Mary Hall, Fannie Hall, Sallie Talley, Empress Hall, Virginia Vernon, Nannie Clayton.

Trinkle Commutes Davis' Sentence

(Special To The Bee)
RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 17.—Governor Trinkle today commuted the sentence of Ephraim Davis, under sentence of death, to life imprisonment. The man shot and killed his neighbor five years ago and was captured in Florida. Davis will be sent to the hospital for criminal insane, having been adjudged insane.

Auction Prices Well Maintained

Sales of tobacco at auction were unusually heavy yesterday, these being until after three o'clock. There was not so much tobacco in the market as the offerings on hand were disposed of by one o'clock. One auctioneer said this morning that prices on all grades are well sustained and that there has been no depression in prices since the resumption of the market has been often noted in years past. The present harsh weather will result in high sales being expected.

FOUR DEAD IN PLANE DISASTER

Would Operate On Undesirables

(By The Associated Press)
Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 17.—Six passenger trains, bound in both directions, between Washington and Atlanta, were delayed by a wreck of 25 freight cars which blocked both tracks of the Southern at Sycamore early today. The train wreck occurred on the N. & W. The wreck occurred after midnight and it was hoped to have the tracks clear this afternoon. The accident was said to be due to a broken car wheel.

Sycamore Scene of Freight Wreck 25 Cars Ditched

A freight wreck resulting in heavy damage to the Southern Railway Company occurred near Sycamore at 12:10 o'clock this morning when a south-bound freight was derailed twenty-five box cars, most of them loaded, leaving the tracks, many of them being demolished. Only meagre details of the wreck were sent from Lynchburg early today. The wreck occurred on the N. & W. The wreck occurred after midnight and it was hoped to have the tracks clear this afternoon. Unusual Bill Is Introduced Into North Carolina Assembly—Many Measures Are Brought In.

(By The Associated Press)
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 17.—Bills which would authorize surgical operations on inmates of the state penitentiary and charitable institutions deemed social menaces to enable counties to establish and carry on orphanages and that would allow the admission of persons more than 20 years old to Caswell Training School for the feeble minded, were introduced in the Senate today in the largest batch of measures yet offered in a single session.

In the House the day was devoted to the introduction of bills of local import and the committee reports scheduled.

J. R. Cressinger the president's appointee to be governed by the Federal Reserve Board will be asked to address the Assembly in joint session at a time that may suit his convenience according to a resolution introduced in the Senate by C. E. Stenderhall, in which he passed out under a suspension of the rules. Two bills introduced today by Senator W. L. Long of Halifax county for state-wide effect would amend the present law relating to the trial of an issue of fact by legalizing the trial of a civil issue immediately following the joining of the issue instead of waiting thirty days and would permit the sale of real estate under foreclosure on judicial order under a revised law. Sen. W. A. Graham, of Lincoln introduced in the Senate a bill already before the House to authorize North Carolina to co-operate in the movement of the Cotton Commission organized at New Orleans.

National Thrift Week

January 17th-23rd

Thrift Week Begins Today

Today, Wednesday, January 17, 1923, marks the opening of National Thrift Week which is being generally observed throughout the United States. It is very fitting indeed that it should always open on the birthday of Benjamin Franklin, the pioneer exponent of Thrift.

The Week will be observed in Danville by Thrift talks in the various schools, mills, factories, special Thrift articles in the Register and Bee, special advertisements and window displays by our business houses. The Y. M. C. A., of Danville and Schoolfield are heading the movement and have the hearty co-operation of the Y. W. C. A., daily news papers, public schools, churches and civic organizations.

Each day of Thrift Week has a special significance as follows:

Wednesday, Jan. 17, "Thrift Day"

Thursday, Jan. 18, "Budget Day and Building & Loan Day"

Friday, Jan. 19, "Life Insurance Day"

Saturday, Jan. 20, "Own Your Home Day"

Sunday, Jan. 21, "Share with others Day"

Monday, Jan. 22, "Pay your Bills Promptly Day"

Tuesday, Jan. 23, "Make a Will Day"

Watch the advertising and publicity columns of the Register and Bee each day of Thrift week for interesting and profitable Thrift information, news and announcements.

Today (Wed., Jan. 17th) is the birthday of Benjamin Franklin, the great apostle of Thrift, and author of the famous "Poor Richard's almanack" a distinguishing feature of which was the large number of maxims which are still direct applications to the practical affairs of life.

Benjamin Franklin's autobiography is a fascinating story which every person can read with not only the greatest interest but with much benefit.

Among the wise sayings of Benjamin Franklin are the following:

"Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee."

"Diligence is the mother of good-luck."

"God helps them that helps themselves."

"Early to bed early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise."

Today (Wed., Jan. 17th) is "Bank Day" of National Thrift Week.

Why Have A Bank Account?

1. A checking account enables you to pay your bills in a business way.
2. Your cancelled checks are receipts for bills paid.
3. Doing business with a bank increases your credit and financial standing.
4. A bank pays interest on savings deposits.
5. Your money is safe in a bank.
6. A banker will give reliable advice on investments.
7. A bank is a safe place to leave valuables and important papers.
8. Doing business with a bank encourages you to save more.
9. A bank account tends to increase confidence in yourself.
10. Your savings bank deposits invested by the banker in industrial advancement directly contribute to the country's prosperity.

BE THRIFTY

Veteran Succeeds by Plan Urged During Thrift Week

BY CAPT. JAMES W. ENGLISH
Who started with $50 after the Civil war and worked his way up until, at $9, he is millionaire head of a chain of leading banks.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 17.—I know the post-war days would be rough and I put by every cent I could rake and scrape in the army. After my discharge I worked hard, and a little of what I earned I saved. It was mighty little, but I did it every week, and soon I began to see how even a little money, if thriftly saved, could be turned over in business. Thrift taught me business judgment, and business judgment enabled me to make progress. Thrift is the greatest asset a person can have. With it, success is certain. Save the Easy Way.

How the First Savings Bank In the World Started

The first savings bank was started by Miss Priscilla Wakefield, in the parish of Tottenham, Middlesex, England, toward the close of the 18th century, her object being mainly to stimulate frugality among poor children. The experiment proved so successful that in 1799 the Rev. Joseph Smith, of Wendon, commenced a plan of receiving small sums from the parishioners during summer and returning them at Christmas, with the addition of one-third as a stimulus to prudence and forethought. Miss Wakefield, in her turn, followed Mr. Smith's example, and in 1804 extended the plan of her charitable bank so as to include adult laborers, female servants and others.

A similar institution was formed at Bath, in 1805, by several ladies of that city; and about the same time a Mr. Whitbread proposed to Parliament the formation of a national institution, "In the nature of a Bank for the use and advantage of the laboring classes alone," but nothing came of his proposal.

It was not until the Rev. Henry Duncan, the minister of Ruthwell, a poor parish in Dumfriesshire, Scotland, took up the subject, that the savings bank system may be said to have become fairly inaugurated. The inhabitants of that parish were mostly poor cottagers, whose average wages did not amount to more than eight shillings a week. There were no manufacturers in the district, nor any means of subsistence for the population except what was derived from the land under cultivation; and the land owners were for the most part non-resident. It seemed a very unlikely place in which to establish a bank for savings, where the poor people were already obliged to strain every nerve to earn a bare living, to provide the means of educating their children, (for, however small his income, the Scottish peasant almost invariably contrives to save something wherewith to send his children to school,) and to pay their little contributions to the friendly society of the parish. Nevertheless, the minister resolved, as a help to his spiritual instructions, to try the experiment and from that grew what is today the great Thrift Movement.

BULL LOCKED IN BARN. LISTS FOR 36 DAYS; IS SKELETON; MAY RECOVER

BERKELEY, Mont., Jan. 16.—The record for fasting by a domestic animal is believed to have been established here when a Hereford bull, owned by Carl Burke, of Berkeley, was found in a deserted barn after having starved from the rancher's herd. Apparently the bull had entered the barn and closed the door shut, making itself a prisoner. He had been without food or water for 36 days and was reduced to a skeleton, but it is believed he will recover.

AGRICULTURE STRESSED FOR NEGRO RACE

(By The Associated Press)
TUSKEGEE, Ala., Jan. 16.—Failure to provide an important place for agriculture in the education system for the negro would be doing that race a serious injustice, C. W. Pugsley, assistant secretary of agriculture, declared in an address tonight before the Negro Farmers' Conference being held at the Tuskegee Agricultural Institute.

An increase of 3.1 per cent in the number of negro farmers in the United States in the last decade as compared with an increase of 1.8 per cent in the number of white farmers should be kept constantly in mind, Mr. Pugsley said, in shaping the negro educational system so that agriculture should not be neglected. Of the 10,643,131 negroes in the United States when the last census was taken, 8,872,993, or approximately 85 per cent, were in the sixteen Southern and Atlantic States. The negro farm population in those states was 5,044,489, or about 57 per cent of the total negro population.

Mr. Pugsley declared the advance of the race in education had been remarkable during the last decade, which showed a gain of 9 per cent in school attendance and a decrease of 8.3 per cent in illiteracy among negroes.

16 Hens Laying 14 Eggs a Day

Chinese Tablets Work Wonders for Mr. Bailey. Easy to Try.

"We didn't have much confidence in Don Sung, so we tried it first on 16 hens. We started Jan. 20th, when these hens were laying almost nothing—2 or 3 eggs a week. In the weeks, they were laying 10 to 14 a day, or over 6 dozen a week. I'm glad we gave Don Sung a trial. We can't praise it enough."—H. H. Bailey, Clifton, Texas.

"It does extra eggs a week at water prices! And a $1 package of Don Sung lasts 16 hens 3 months. No wonder Mr. Bailey is glad he tried it!"

It may sound too good to be true. That's what Mr. Bailey used to think. But he'll prove it to you just as we did to him with this offer:

Get Don Sung to 15 hens. Then watch results for 30 days. If it doesn't show you a big increase in egg production, we'll pay you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese) acts directly on the egg-laying organs, and is beneficial in every way. It makes hens healthy and happy. They scratch and sing. Pullet develop rapidly. They lay eggs regularly in any season, in any weather, when eggs are scarce and high.

Can you afford to ignore the wonderful reports you are hearing from Don Sung users everywhere? Why not let us show you the same results, with your own flock? Don Sung is no trouble to use. It costs nothing to try. All we ask is a chance to prove our claims, entirely at our risk. Get Don Sung from your local dealer, or for 10 cents per package by mail prepaid (large size $1, holds three times as much). Bureau of Eggs, Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

S. O. S. FOR STAGE-DOOR JOHN; H. C. L. HAS MADE HIM A. W. O. L.

BY ALEXANDER HELLMAN

(Special to The Bee)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—With the high cost of bootleg whisky putting the Stage Door Johnnie out of business, Broadway's back door is beginning to creak like a rusty gate.

Where once a long line of beaming tappers stood, waiting for the ladies of the chorus, now sits old Bill Riley—alone. And he doesn't like it.

Bill is Broadway's oldest backstage watch dog. He is 71 and has been a figure on the alleys off the Great White Way for so many years that he has lost count of them.

"Maybe a Stage-Door Mary will be coming along soon," he says hopefully.

"But it isn't very likely. They're even scarier than the Johns."

"Prohibition and the high cost of lobbyists is scarier than them off."

"In the old days when they used to drive up with a hack and a smile, it didn't cost so much to have a good time."

Times Sure Have Changed

"But now, a fellow had better buy his pack of cigarettes before he goes into a restaurant or cabaret. No matter how much money he may have, there probably won't be enough left to buy the smokes after."

"Things have gotten so that I haven't seen a real honest-to-goodness John around here for more than four years!"

"Maybe it's the girls' fault, too. They aren't going in much for just a food and drink. They want expensive fun—fur coats, Paris dresses and the like."

"Did you notice the line of small shops in the hotels and side streets? That's what's breaking the Johns."

"Instead of taking him to a lobster palace, the girls lead him into one of these stores—and make him and his bankroll look sick."

"No ordinary Johnnie can keep up the pace—it takes a John D."

Will Outline Plans of Year for Education

RALEIGH, N. C., January 16.—In addition to the usual business that will be transacted at the annual meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina Education Association here next Saturday, the officials will outline the plan of work for the year to be submitted to the local units for adoption. The recommendations of the committee approved by the teachers of the state through this referendum will constitute the program for 1923.

The committee will make its recommendations from the report of the special committee appointed at the assembly in November to consider the suggestions of the secretary. In the opinion of officials of the organization, it was stated, the results of this committee meeting and of the referendum will mark an important step in the organized efforts of teachers.

Among the important recommendations of the special committee, composed of Dr. T. C. Amick, of Elon College; Dr. W. A. Withers, of North Carolina State College; and Superintendent S. L. Sheep, of the Elizabeth City schools, are the following:

"1. The holding of group or sectional meetings of teachers during the year in addition to the one big meeting which has been held every year in the past. This will carry the work of the association to every teacher in the state."

"2. Providing a committee which will work with the department of education in the revision of school laws, which relate to the teachers."

"3. The appointment of a committee which will make a careful study of the retirement laws of other states, with a view of working out a retirement law that will be adapted to North Carolina. It is expected that these studies will cover every state in the union that has adopted a retirement law, and it is the hope of those interested in this particular feature that the committee will be in a position to ask the legislature of 1925 to act on this legislation."

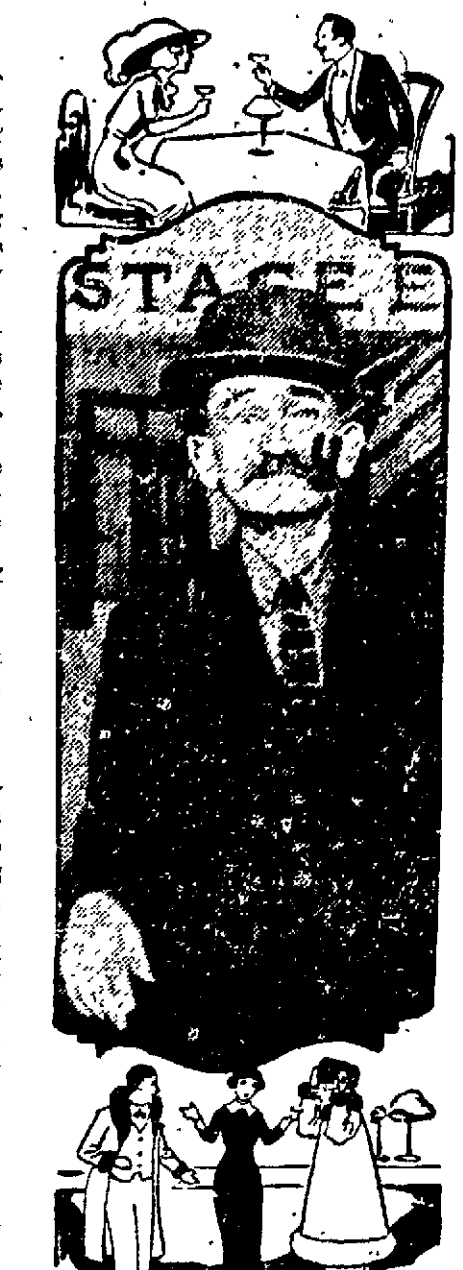

"4. Consideration of the establishment of a magazine or journal which will go to all members of the association."

"5. Co-operation with the state department of education in making suggestions for the improvement of the school system in this state, and having these published in bulletin form."

"6. Consideration of a suggested program of work for the local units. The president, Miss Elizabeth Kelly, has made very interesting suggestions for this program for the local units."

"7. Some changes in the plan of operating the placement bureau so that the cost of this service will be distributed among those who use it, rather than the whole membership of the association."

In addition to his report of Dr. Amick's committee, the executive committee will consider the applications of groups of teachers for the creation of new branches of the association. In-

Harrison, Ark., Is Tranquil After Two Days Of Riot

(By The Associated Press)

HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 16.—This look on the appearance of absolute tranquillity tonight after two days of intense excitement during which one man was wounded, another lynched by being hanged from a railroad trestle and more than a score of former employees of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway escorted out of town to the Missouri state line this afternoon. They were accompanied by a "committee of one thousand" which stated that it was not on coming up the strikers and their supporters to prevent further interference with operation of the crippled railroad system.

"The committee of one thousand" tonight broke up after holding special sessions behind closed doors for two days and its members are on their way to their respective homes, some of them coming from a distance of 150 to assist in the roundup. No further trouble is anticipated.

The Arkansas House of Representatives and Senate adopted a resolution authorizing Governor T. C. McRae to call out the national guard and declare martial law at Harrison, but the governor announced his intention tonight to suspend indefinitely the sending of the troops, after he said he had received a telegram from county officials here stating that the situation was quiet and that the troops would not be needed. Tonight it was said, the usually every strike in Harrison—about 200—had been ejected from the state or placed in jail by the committee.

The body of E. C. Greer, striking railway shop worker, found early this morning suspended from a railway trestle was tonight taken in charge by his widow and relatives for burial. Greer, it is said, was hanged after he resisted attempts of "committee of one thousand," who were seeking to identify persons who are said to have carried on a campaign of sabotage against the railway company. Greer's home was visited by a committee demanding his surrender Monday night. Greer is alleged to have replied with a revolver shot and escaped from the house in a hail of bullets. Emory dust and high explosives were found in Greer's home, members of the committee charged. After the lynching of Greer, George W. O'Neal, hotel proprietor and local capitalist who is said to have furnished bail for many strikers, was arrested and charged with sabotage, then taken from home and severely whipped. Today he was in the hands of a special committee which he promised he would lead to the hiding place of E. D. Stephens, former engineer, who, it is said, was wanted by the committee.

Up to a late hour tonight Stephens had not been captured, but O'Neal was not further harmed.

Night Marshal Rush, of Harrison, who was accused of being a strike sympathizer, was seized, tied, flogged and ordered to leave town. He is said to have left late today, "for parts unknown."

A. J. Russell, United States deputy marshal, of Fort Smith, spent today in Harrison investigating the situation. He came here on the orders of Attorney General Daugherty. Russell said tonight he would make his report direct to Mr. Daugherty early tomorrow and intimated he would recommend that the railroad be placed under federal guard. It is understood that J. C. Murray, vice president and general manager of the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway, left Harrison late today for Fort Smith, for the purpose of requesting Judge Tamm of the Western Arkansas Federal Court, to issue an injunction to restrain persons from further interfering with the operation of the railroad.

A coroner's jury investigating the hanging at five o'clock this morning of E. C. Greer, a striking railway worker employed by the Missouri and North Arkansas Railway late today returned this verdict:

"We the jury find that C. C. Greer came to his death by strangulation from a rope around his neck."

Italians and French Will Not Risk Any Break

(By The Associated Press)

LAUSANNE, Jan. 16.—In the face of French and Italian objection, Great Britain apparently has renounced her idea of presenting the Turks with a draft of the Near Eastern peace treaty this week. Great Britain believes so much time has been spent in discussion that little more can be gained; but the French and Italians hesitate to risk a break with Turkey before all avenues of compromise have been closed.

The allies are described as vitally interested in the attempt to maintain foreign judicial privileges in Turkey because that the American door to unrestricted immigration is shut. Italy desires to send part of her overpopulation to Asia Minor and have them subject there, as far as possible to Italian law.

Four articles of agreement concerning the expanse of the Turkish population in Greece and the Greek population in Turkey, which affects a million people, were accepted today, but the Turks raised objection on some important points. They insisted that all Greeks in Turkey, except those in Constantinople, shall be deported, whether they be Turkish subjects or Greeks who have not adopted Turkish nationality. All Greeks, whether followers of the Orthodox Church or Roman Catholic must go; also those who have acquired the nationality of some other country while resident of Turkey.

Difficultly arose today over the boundary of western Thrace, which belongs to Greece and where the Turkish population is allowed to remain to offset the Turkish decision that the Greek may stay in Constantinople. The Turks contended that the real boundary of western Thrace is the Struma River and not the Mesta River, as had been believed by many persons and that therefore Turks living east of the Struma must not be deported. The Greeks objected to this, and the question was reserved.

Under the articles agreed upon the population to be exchanged is to be nationally as soon as repatriated, so that while at sea and until they gain new nationality they will be people truly without a country.

Criminals must serve out their sentences in the country to which they are repatriated or stand new trials.

Losing Weight
If Stomach Is Gassy, Sour, Acid, With Belching, Heartburn and Pressure, Try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Any number of thin people have great trouble with their stomachs. The food does not seem to prepare itself to nourish the body. The stomach is in an acid condition and such people often complain of weakness, rheumatism, pain, headache and a run down condition when what they need is the alkaline effect to overcome or neutralize this acid condition. A host of people have found that by chewing one or two of the large white tablets from a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets they get this alkaline effect, then begin to pick up, take on firm flesh and eat whatever they like and feel fine. Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets of any druggist and note the splendid results after eating pie, cheese, sausage and all the other tasty foods—ad.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AND THIRTY WEEK.

Today is the two hundredth anniversary of the birthday of Benjamin Franklin, the exponent of many virtues and an American who did much in his time to cement the bonds of amity between France, Great Britain and this country. He lived in all three lands and became a noted figure because of an unusual talent and ingenuity. This year his anniversary takes on more than usual interest since it is his second centennial and there will be more than usual emphasis on his multitudinous traits of character and on the sage maxims he pronounced and which have since become household expressions in many lands.

The life of Benjamin Franklin has long been held up as an exemplar and his birthday, January 17th, has of recent years ushered in national thrift week which has come to be recognized as a fundamental movement in civic life each year.

Its objective is to teach thrift not in the pinch-penny sense of the word,
 but rather along lines best expressed by the Thrift Week slogan, "Spend Time and Money Wisely." This movement, fostered by the Y. M. C. A., has been endorsed and is supported by 42 of the leading civic, religious and industrial organizations of the country.

Each succeeding day of the week is particularly devoted to some distinctive thrifty enterprise, such as "Own
 Your Own Home Day," "Make a Will Day," etc.

Franklin's Book of Virtues, setting forth his views on life, perhaps summarize his ideals best. Following is a quotation from this book which is of timely interest:

"I made a little book, in which I allotted a page for each of the Virtues. I ruled each page with red ink, so as to have seven columns, one for each day of the week, marking each column with a letter for the day. I crossed these columns with thirteen red lines, marking the beginning of each line with the first letter of one of the virtues, on which line, and in its proper column, I might mark, by the little black spot, every fault I found upon examination to have been committed respecting that virtue upon that day."

"It is necessary for me to be extremely frugal for some time till I have paid what I owe."

"To endeavor to speak truth in every instance, and to do so with expectations that he is likely to be answered, but aim at sincerity in every word and action; the most amiable, free, and in a rational being."

"To apply myself industriously
 to whatever business I take in hand,
 and not divert my mind from my business by any foolish project of growing suddenly rich, for industry and patience are the surest means of plenty."

"I resolve to speak ill of no man whatever, nor even in a matter of truth; but rather by some means excuse the fault I hear charged upon others, and upon proper occasions speak all the good I know of Everybody."

"To this plan he later made additions. One of them consisted of a set of twelve virtues, which he resolved to practice as follows:

1. Temperance.
2. Exercise.
3. Order.
4. Resolution.
5. Frugality.
6. Industry.
7. Sincerity.
8. Justice.
9. Moderation.
10. Cleanliness.
11. Tranquillity.
12. Chastity.

"After selecting them for some time
 he found he was doing so well that he had grown proud of the fact, which he reflected that pride was a vice,
 he resolved to add another to the
 table of virtues:

13. Humility.

TWO ARE INDICTED

(By The Associated Press)

GASTONIA, N. C., Jan. 16.—A true bill was returned this afternoon by the Gaston County grand jury indic-ting Robert L. Price and John Cartwright on charges of murdering John Ford. The men were also indicted on a charge of "secret assault" on the person of a young woman who was present at the time the murder was committed.

Scoop's Collyum

DRAKES BRANCH, January 17.— (Grapevine Wireless).—"When do we eat?" That is a question which bobs up two or three times a day in the lives of all people. Mother thinks we eat too much and too often while little Willie takes the opposite view, yuh just can't fill him up. Grandpa with his loose teeth does the best he can and never complains.

Some of us mortals daily indulge in hearty meals at home while others of us must grab just a bite in a hurry at the nearest restaurant. Without question, eating is most important proposition for us
 all. Food is fuel for the human machine. Now and then, a little humor in happening and repartee is sun-drenched in between the solemn moments at the table. Such sallies and laughs provided without cost, as it were, are a welcome relish. In the same way "Topics of the Day" films are a popular relish with movie audiences everywhere. Many subjects are treated humorously in the comments and jokes served up by the press humorists. Some of the best relate eating and restaurant fun. You may prefer to have your meals table d'hôte.
 But when it comes to humor it is better when served by the Bee.

THE BLIND CHILD

I know what mother's face is like.

Although I cannot see;

It's like the music of a bell.

It's like the way the roses smell.

It's like the secrets fables tell—
 All these its like to me.

I know what father's face is like—
 I'm sure I know it all;

It's like his step upon the stair,

It's like his whistle on the air,

It's like his arms that take such care.
 And never let me fail.

So I can tell what God is like,
 The God whom no one sees;

He's everything my mother means,
 He's everything my father seems,

He's like my very sweetest dreams,
 But greater than all these.

 held tomorrow afternoon from the home and the burial will be made in the family burying grounds.

THE ONE-MAN WOMAN—NO. 33

(By Ruth Agnes Abell)

BEGIN HERE TODAY

KATE WARD, widow of DAN
 WARD, living with her father,
 JUSTIN PARSONS, was a visitor at CHATHAM, where she says Dan was father of her child.

DOROTHY, near their home, a few nights later, Kate and her father find an unconscious man, the victim of an auto crash. They carry him in, he recovers and gives his name as

JAMES LATHAM. Kate goes montoring with Latham. She asks him to take her to the laundry of SUE LOY, with whom Alice lives,
 to offer the latter her friendship,
 but Alice makes no direct answer.
 On their way home Latham suddenly turns to Kate with the words: "I love you."

GO ON WITH THE STORY

KATE wondered if she had heard aright.

Then Latham repeated the words:
 "I love you."

Kate was thrilled. She had been thinking of Dan, reliving some of their hours together. And she had loved him, still loved him. Yet the voice of the man beside her played upon her emotions and set her heart sinking. She marveled at herself.
 Could there ever be an affection
 which could take the place of Dan's?

Would that be a second love as big
 and with such possibilities for happiness?

Kate wondered. When she spoke it was to answer Latham with a question.

"Do women ever love a second time?" She didn't wait for an answer but continued. "Every bit of afternoon I had to gaze was given once.
 And I wonder if, given, it can still be kept. Or if a new affection can spring from ashes of the old."

"Or—can't love a permanent thing?"
 Must we face the fact that it never can be fully promised, never fully depended upon? Is the love that is given me today liable to belong to some other woman tomorrow? And have I no right to call that other woman a thief? I might as well blame my former lover for faithlessness."

Which the whole lot of problems
 which the whole lot of problems
 and for which generation after generation has found no solution," Latham said when Kate stopped speaking. "I know, dear, only that I love you."

And I can't seem to see far into the future without you. Don't tell me that I haven't known you long

Bowlegs Falling Off!

By EDWARD THIERRY
 (Special to The Bee)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—There are fewer bowlegged people than ever before.

(This isn't based on census statistics; nobody—that we know of—has been going around taking a bowlegged census.)

Experts, a hospital surgeon and a man who picks chorus girls, say it's a fact. The former is talking about babies, and the latter about ladies.

This goes for knock-knees, as well as for bow-leggedness, that curiously concave curvature of the lower extremities. They are disappearing phenomena.

Dr. Asa E. Davis, chief surgeon of the Lying-In-Hospital, said he found in records of the last 10,000 cases that there are constantly fewer bowlegged babies among the 1000 or more examined every week.

John Murray Anderson, producer of the Greenwich Village Follies, says scarcely one girl in 50 out of the 300 or more applicants he sees yearly is bowlegged.

"People used to think a child became bowlegged because its parents

 BOWLEGS SLINKING INTO THE CHORUS.

taught it to walk too soon," said Dr.
 Davis. "The real cause is malnutrition, a simple deficiency in bone-making calcium."

"Straight legs, mothers are learning,
 depend on proper diet. Greater care in infant diet is eliminating rickets and consequently the malformations that used to be so prevalent."

Girls who apply for jobs in the chorus must have been well fed, says Anderson. He personally sees every candidate for the chorus and he accidently casts a critical eye at the ladies' legs.

"The public wants to see straight legs," he says. "A bowlegged girl in tight suit is much to look at. A girl with bare knees isn't very pretty if she's knock-kneed."

"Names of 1500 girls are on our lists to be called when a new show is planned. In a year I probably see twice that many bowlegged girls.
 They are very rare. They're proud of their legs and I guess they don't come around if they can't put on rompers or tights and get away with it."

"In four years only one bowlegged girl slipped into the chorus. She came in after rehearsal, and got an emergency job—in long skirts. She got into tights—and we had to let her go."

BOARD GRANTED STATE CHARTER

(By The Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 16.—The International Education Board, an organization fostered by the Richmond Foundation, was granted a charter by the state corporation commission today.

The board has no capital stock but is permitted to acquire and hold real estate to the extent of 10,000 acres in the United States or any foreign country. Its purposes, as defined in the application for a charter, are for
 "the promotion and advancement of educational interests in all parts of the world."

The affairs of board are to be administered by a board of not less than five nor more than 15 members. The first board, as named in the charter,
 is composed of the following:

"BLOC SYSTEM" WAS CONDEMNED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—"The bloc system", in Congress was condemned as dangerous by Representatives Fessenden, Ohio, in a speech tonight before the Quill Club, an association of editors and editorial writers.

The system is "naturally selfish", said Mr. Fess, based upon groups which may be classified over specific interests. We have the agriculture bloc, the labor bloc, the ex-service bloc, the anti-saloon bloc, the big business bloc and the unclassified or radical bloc. Some of these groups are of little significance by lack of information, which is not measured so much by the number of members in Congress as by the number they represent."

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfaction in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—

What's Going On In the World

WEEK'S CHIEF EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART (Special to The Bee)

France having made good her threat to try hurrying up payment of her war claims by a seizure of German territory, a state of affairs exists in Europe which may end in any one of a good many different kinds of trouble.

For instance, a revolution in Germany would not surprise anybody. Any government which permits the country to be invaded by a foreign power's troops is bound to be blamed. This furnishes discontented elements with a chance to grab at control. On one hand, the German "reds" might attempt it. On the other hand, the royalists might. Or the Russians might think it an opportune time to try to gain some advantage.

The "little entente", consisting of new, war-formed countries in eastern Europe, is a source of uneasiness. In fact, it's understood that the premier is about to meet at Belgrade, to adopt a plan, similar to France's, against Hungary.

Italy, just on general principles, is so uneasy that Premier Mussolini has ordered a partial mobilization. The Balkan states, in the central Europe, by distracting attention from the turbulent Near East, makes Turkey very independent.

The very fact that it's impossible to tell what may happen, or where, only adds to the feeling of anxiety.

France Almost Alone

London and Washington disapprove strongly of what France has done. It isn't that there's any sympathy at either of these capitals with Germany. They both consider that if the Germans are able to pay, they ought to be compelled to do it. But they regard it as at least very doubtful if Germany is able to do so. Just as they were hoping the world was going to settle down, with some prospects of a return to "normalcy," they're much dissatisfied by France's refusal to abandon a policy calculated to upset everything again.

Premier Bonaparte's Law of England marked his objections to the French course by quitting the conference with the French, Italian and Belgian premiers when he found he wasn't going to be listened to.

It has been learned that Myron T. Herrick, United States ambassador to France, without actually protesting against the French advance into the Ruhr, did tell Premier Poincaré that the Washington administration was not in favor of the French action. He also told Roland W. Borden, unofficial American representative on the reparations commission, likewise told the French Italian and Belgian delegates that he didn't believe Germany could pay France's claims, and said he agreed with England.

The United States, too, recalled her few troops still on German soil. They didn't mean much in a military way, but their recall implied a protest.

It seems even Premier Mussolini protested, though Italy is at odds with France on the reparations commission.

Germany Doesn't Resist

France first seized Essen, seat of the Ruhr factories; the German government, center of the Ruhr coal industry, it's expected still more occupations will follow.

There was a hostile gathering but not much trouble at Essen. Munich he hoped would not prevent enactment of the law. The French gathering and Bavaria generally, which is regarded as royalist, is reported excited. The Mergel district, in East Prussia, is in a state of disorder, reported in some quarters to mean a desire to join the new republic of Lithuania; in others to be anti-French.

The German government, however, sanctioned no resistance to the French invasion, saying it sticks to the Versailles treaty which it accuses France of breaking. It recalled the German diplomatic representatives from Paris and Brussels and gave notice that all talk of paying war damages to France and Belgium is off until their troops are out of Germany.

German protests against the Ruhr invasion were sent to London and Washington, but it's understood they won't be answered. England and the United States feeling, despite their disapproval of the French course, that there isn't anything they can do about it at present.

What Comes Next?

There are plenty of signs that the French, now they're in the Ruhr, hardly know what to do next.

Presumably they counted on dealing with the great Rhineland Coal Syndicate, but this organization, just before their arrival, moved bag and baggage to Hamburg. It had to leave its property behind, but they must be worked to enable the French to get anything out of them and the French lack the workers' good will. They might bring their own from home, but moving an entire industrial population from one country to another is a tremendous undertaking.

The difficulties she faces may be responsible for France's talk now of a considerable extension in the time permitted Germany to meet the demands against her. France in the meantime retaining control in the Ruhr and exacting certain other conditions, such as Germany's submission to allied supervision of her finances, to living within her income and to making an internal loan to stabilize the mark.

But will Germany agree? That probably will depend on the multiplication of her own difficulties and the result of her observation of France's.

Keeping the Door Open

When the French government sent troops into the Ruhr, it was interpreted generally as a rejection of Secretary of State Hughes' proposal of an international board of financiers to decide how much Germany was able to pay.

Maybe this was a mistake. It seems the Hughes plan was laid definitely before Premier Poincaré, who neither turned it down nor expressed any hostility toward it.

Hopes are entertained that it may be accepted yet, if the Ruhr venture proves a failure. At any rate, it is said the Washington government is keeping the "door open" with a view to a tender of its "good offices" if it receives any intimation that it would be well received.

Merely Matter of Politics

The Poincaré government's position in England and America has not been strengthened by the existence of a widely expressed suspicion in both countries that the Ruhr expedition was dictated by nothing but a hope of gaining political advantage at home through what it thought would be a popular move.

France In the Ruhr Germans Don't Resist Now What Next?

Naturally it's the consensus of opinion that the world's peace never should have been endangered for any such reason.

"Nevertheless it's felt that the government, if such was its motive, will be likely to change its policy very quickly if it finds it made a mistake, which is what it probably will find if it can't get much out of Germany and England and American coldness affects France's own credit unfavorably.

The British "debt commission," led by Chancellor of the Exchequer—Stanley Baldwin, is in conference with the government in Washington concerning settlement of England's war obligations to the United States. England expects to pay every cent, but wants more time and lower interest. These probably will be arranged.

At Lausanne the settlement of England's differences of opinion with Turkey has made fair progress, and peace prospects are better. The Turks, however, have not stopped making military preparations.

Engagement Of Duke Of York Sets London By Ears

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 16.—Every eye in London from the cockiest aristocrat to the most altitudinous aristocrat was agog today over the announcement of the Duke of York's engagement.

People talked of everywhere in the city, in the streets, in the houses and in the most gossipy of all places, the ubiquitous Tea Room. Here some of the things regarding Prince Albert's engagement to Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, daughter of the Earl of Strathmore, one saw in the papers today.

"The Duke of York, popped the question three times before he succeeded in getting 'yes' for an answer—the first time he proposed to her after Princess Mary's wedding; the second, while golfing last September, and thirdly last Sunday when he was the week-end guest at the Hertfordshire home of the Earl.

It is said that after turning down the offer, Lady Elizabeth received a letter from the Queen saying she was perfectly right not to marry the Duke unless she loved him.

Perhaps the young Duke was surprised by being accepted on Sunday as he had not brought the engagement ring.

"So far as I know," said Lady Elizabeth's father today, "the ring has not even been purchased; the Prince did not take it out of his pocket."

On Monday, Prince Albert hurried to Sandringham to get his parents' approval and his successful accomplishment of this was announced an hour later in the court circular. Today he and Lady Elizabeth and her mother, Lady Leveson-Gower, were at the Stratford town house.

The common belief is that the date of the wedding will be announced in a few days and will be likely set for May or June in Westminster Abbey. Prince Albert first met Lady Elizabeth at a children's party given by Lady Leicester when Elizabeth was five or six years of age, and the Prince was a school boy. Recently they have been seen and played golf and tennis together often.

Lady Elizabeth wasn't a bit bothered by the recent report that she was engaged to the Prince. In fact, she did not think she paid the slightest attention to it," said Lady Rose.

The quickened interest all the king's subjects are taking in the Duke of York because of his engagement is sure to be manifested at his future public appearances, the first of which is next Thursday night, when he will preside at a festival dinner of the Industrial Welfare Society. Scotland will be the scene of the engagement of a native daughter to a scion royalty undoubtedly was the excuse tonight for thousands of "here's looking to us" will be visited by the Duke next week, when he goes to Glasgow to receive the freedom of the city and attend a football game.

Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon's marriage to an English prince will be the far cry from the days of her boyhood, three of whom fell at Bataan in the historic encounter between the Scotch and English, in which thousands of the Scotch nobility perished.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

Fight Of Rivers and Harbors Bloc In House Breaks

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The fight of the River Harbor bloc to increase the waterways appropriations in the army bill broke in the House today when the Rivers and Harbors Committee announced he would offer an amendment increasing the item from $37,000,000 to $56,589,910. This he said, had been recommended by the army engineers.

Mr. Dempsey urged the necessity of immediate improvement of the inland waterways and the coast harbors in order to make them available for transportation to relieve the congestion of freight movement and to take care of what he described as a "national crisis" fraught with grave danger to the agricultural and industrial interests of the interior of the country.

"A vast tonnage on the sea is idly partly because of the depression in Europe, but also because of the inability of the railroads to carry shipments for which there is a ready market abroad. It is clear both from statistics and from the best expert opinion that the situation can only be relieved by increasing the facilities for water transportation in the interior."

Mr. Dempsey said a "handful" of government owned boats floating on the Mississippi carried over 600,000 tons of freight last year at an average saving of $1.35 per ton to the shipper and consumer and showed a clear profit over depreciation and operating cost to the government.

"Work on the Mississippi should have been completed last year," he continued, "but under the increased appropriation only $2,000,000 is allotted to this project. At the rate contemplated it will take many years to finish it."

On the Ohio, Mr. Dempsey said, where $65,000,000 had been expended and only a third of the channel completed there is a loss of $4,000,000 a year in interest. Mr. Dempsey cited the congestion in the New York district, where he said, the port authorities ought to expect $500,000,000 of that freight may pass under and around the city.

L. A. Talks About Two-Story Streets

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—With the traffic situation in Los Angeles becoming a greater problem every day the latest proposal as a relief for congestion is "second story" streets for pedestrians and automobiles, with moving sidewalks and elevators in the downtown area, according to Councilman W. J. Sanborn, chairman of the City Council's public utility committee.

The plan, Sanborn declares, has been submitted to his consideration by a world-famous engineer and in all probability will be placed before the City Council.

The present downtown streets virtually would be changed into a system of "elevated subways" for use of street cars, pedestrians and commercial delivery vehicles under the plan, Sanborn says.

The plan calls for the construction of streets supported by steel or concrete pillars, 22 feet above the present level of the city streets, leaving these for use of fast street car service.

"While the proposal may seem paradoxical," said Councilman Sanborn, "the plan is really very simple. A new street would be created. Strong steel girders would be placed in the street, which would contain automobile roadways, curbs and moving sidewalks.

"The plan could be put into operation at a comparatively small cost and would do away with the disarrangement of water mains and conduits under the present streets. Both the present ground floors and the second stories of buildings would be used by commercial establishments for displays and shopping centers."

MERCHANT ATTACKED

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 16.—H. Ginsburg, a merchant of this city, was attacked late last night and severely beaten and stabbed by a gang of three negroes at a railroad crossing. Mr. Ginsburg was robbed of every cent of money he had and is now in a hospital, and is in a serious condition. Dandridge is named by Ginsburg as one of his assailants, along with James Lewis.

Final Action On Capper Bill Today

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Conservation of the Capper farm credits bill was nearly completed today by the Senate but final action went over until tomorrow with the other credit measure, the Leach-Anderson bill, scheduled to be taken up immediately after the disposal of the Capper bill.

The principle of the Capper bill was voiced in today's discussion, although its efficiency was scouted by some Republicans as well as Democrats. Senator Simmons, North Carolina, said he hoped the bill would be enacted, declaring the cooperative credit associations proposed would not be of much aid to agriculturists except livestock growers.

Senator Harrison, Mississippi, described as "splendid" measures for farmer relief, the bill's provisions extending Federal Reserve System loans on farmers' notes to nine months and authorizing the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States to issue War Finance Corporation's loan aid for another year.

An amendment by Senator Norbeck, Republican, North Dakota, changing the bill's provisions for the extension of the Federal Reserve System loans on farmers' notes to nine months and authorizing the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States to issue War Finance Corporation's loan aid for another year.

Senator Norbeck said the bill was "intended to take care of big cattle concerns of the west" but not to aid the small farmers. Chairman McLean repudiated the provisions for the credit associations and for extension of the Federal Reserve System loans would be open to all farmers, large and small.

Brookhart, Republican, Iowa, declared the bill would be of no value to Iowa farmers generally, but he added that it might aid farmers of other states. The bill, he said, could not meet the "purposes of the farm mortgage" but he added, "it contributed about $4,000,000 of the Federal Reserve System's deposits and obtained loans from it aggregating only $1,900,000,000 but were denied credit they needed."

LOCK VILLAGE POOH BAH IN HIS OWN HOUSE-GOW

CHILLICOTHE, Jan. 16.—Two negro bandits, known as "Pooch Bah" and "Chillicothe," who had been in the law-abiding village last night, laid violent hands upon all the constituted authorities, locked him in his own jail along with two other prisoners, and robbed every business place in town. In locking up John Merritt, the bandits may not have known it, but they also imprisoned the following officials:

Chief of Police Merritt, John Merritt, entire police force; Commissioner of Streets and Alleys Merritt; Pound Master Merritt, Village Marshal Merritt, Water and Sewer Inspector Merritt, Supervisor of Parks and Grounds Merritt, John Merritt's father; Custodian of City Hall and City Property Merritt; John Merritt, "Pooch Bah" Extraordinary.

In addition to imprisoning all these officials in the town house-gow, the beetle-browed bandits robbed him of his tin snare, his money and his silver watch, slightly injuring a dish wash. Great excitement prevails.

BLACK DRAUGHT OVER 30 YEARS

"Saved Me Many a Sick Spell," Says Texas Farmer, Who Has Long Known Usefulness of Black-Draught.

Naples, Texas.—"I have used Theodore's Black-Draught for years—I can safely say for more than 30 years," declared Mr. J. J. Cromer, a substantial, well-known farmer, resting out on Route 3 from here.

"I am 42 years old, and when a small boy I had indigestion and was a very sickly child. My folks gave me a liver purgative, then Black-Draught was advertised and we heard of it."

"I began to take Black-Draught and have used it, when needed, ever since. I use Black-Draught now in my house and certainly recommend it for any liver trouble."

"I have given it a thorough trial, and after thirty years can say Black-Draught is my stand-by. It has saved me many sick spells."

Mr. Cromer writes that the is "never out of Black-Draught," and says several of his neighbors prefer it to any other liver medicine. "I always recommend Black-Draught to my friends," he adds.

The valuable, old, powdered liver medicine is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs and has none of the bad effects so often observed from the use of calomel, or other powerful mineral drugs.

Black-Draught helps to keep the liver in trim, helping prevent or relieve such troubles as constipation, biliousness, indigestion, sick headache.

Fire Visits Camp Morrison; Nine Shacks Burn Up

(By The Associated Press)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 16.—Fire, originating shortly after eleven o'clock today at Camp Morrison, destroyed the nine buildings connected by a corridor which constituted the hospital group and several buildings in the rear which were used as accessories to the army hospital. About ten other buildings were damaged, and only through the diligent efforts of Newport News firemen, Hilton firemen and an army of volunteers from the vicinity of the camp, the group of army warehouses near the railroad tracks was saved.

Fire at one of two places reached the warehouse group but was quickly extinguished after being discovered under the floors.

The flames traveled at the speed of an express train owing to the high winds which drove the high weeds and grass of the former military reservation, carrying the fire underneath the buildings from which it burst forth in leaping tongues.

A diagonal course was taken by the fire which is said to have been started when workmen tearing down the old hospital house built a fire with which to keep warm. So quickly did the flames spread that observers were taken off their guard and the force which assembled at the scene of the fire was unable to make any headway against the flames.

The Newport News department was the first of the organized fire fighters to reach the camp and was followed shortly after by the department from Hilton. City manager L. G. Thom and Abe Horwitz, S. R. Buxton and Mayor Hille, the last three of whom are members of the fire department, were in record time having made the run to the fire at approximately the same time that the fire chief did. The hospital group was in flames as soon as they arrived and Fire Chief Gordon gave up this group organizing the five firemen who accompanied him and the multitude of volunteers as rapidly as possible.

The whole force fought under difficulties. The intense heat of the hos-

SILZER IS NOW GOVERNOR OF N. J.

(By The Associated Press)
TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 16.—George S. Silzer, Democrat, became governor of New Jersey today.

A drastic touch was injected into the ceremonial at the end of the inaugural address when James Mills, husband of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, who was slain at New Brunswick with the Rev. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, New Brunswick, last September, quietly edged through the members of the legislature assembled in joint session on a local theatre stage, and presented himself to the governor. He asked the governor to "please do something about finding the murderer of my wife."

The governor assured Mr. Mills that he would take the matter up with his secretary.

PNEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenburh, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and so away with even the slightest tringe of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenburh has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitious and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenburh, who for many years suffered torments of acute rheumatism, desired all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of any one's money unless Allenburh decisively conquers the worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. McFall's drug store can supply you.—adv.

Is Winter Time Your Backache Time? Does Your Back Foretell Every Change of the Weather? Do You Feel Old and Still and Suffer Sharp, Rheumatic Pain? Then Look To Your Kidneys!

ARE winter months your backache month? Does every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you lame, aching and all worn out? Does your back ache and ache until it seems you can't keep going another day? Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills throw a heavy strain on the kidneys. They overload the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys have to filter off. The kidneys weaken and this rush of new work becomes engorged and inflamed.

It's little wonder, then, that every one finds you suffering with aching back, rheumatic pains, headache, dizziness and annoying bladder troubles.

Don't wait! Delay may lead to serious or chronic kidney trouble. Grip, colds and chills have a way of finding their way into your kidneys. They overload the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys have to filter off. The kidneys weaken and this rush of new work becomes engorged and inflamed.

"Use Doan's," Say These Danville Folks:

J. W. SCARCE, 210 E. Thomas St. says: "I suffered with rheumatic pains. At times I could hardly get around on account of the severe pains, especially in my joints. I tried different kidney remedies, but all to no avail until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking the first box of Doan's I was a little relieved and continued use took the rheumatic pains out of my body, entirely curing me. I have had no return of the trouble."

MRS. W. G. MOORE, 433 N. Main St. says: "My kidneys and back were in bad condition on getting up in the morning, no matter how early and stiff and I had terrible rheumatic pains. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. The action of my kidneys was regulated. Doan's cured me."

For the Game's Sake

By LAWRENCE PERRY.
(Copyright, 1923, By The Bee)
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Whether or not football shall frankly and openly be regarded as a financial producer by our various institutions of learning today a pressing problem which will have to be settled definitely at no distant time.

At present, as it seems, our colleges occupy a curious and not altogether logical position. Professing to include the gildron game as part of the warp and woof of the intercollegiate sports scheme, subject to the usual stipulations, they do not seem to recognize that football has attained a vital economic significance. Or if the fact is recognized it is largely ignored.

A case in point is the Princeton football schedule for next fall. To Princeton the undergraduate organ in a strong editorial deprecates conditions that it is necessary for the Tigers to arrange to play their mid-season test game against the Navy on a neutral field. The editor of the Princeton Daily is under the impression that the football committee delayed so long in arranging the 1923 schedule that it was forced into the position of taking anything it could get. An arduous mission, surely, to arrange a game which would not only be a record in the past season.

Earle Neale To Coach Virginia

(By The Associated Press.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. Jan. 16.—Earle Neale will coach football and baseball at the University of Virginia during the term of 1923-24 according to an announcement made here today by Dr. John H. Neale, who is the head of the athletic department.

Neale will enter upon his new duties September 10 when he will report to the board of trustees. He will be in the spring, however, for a work-out with football candidates. While the new coach is definitely employed for only one year, the council has an option on his services for future seasons. The arrangement is found mutually satisfactory.

Coch Neale succeeds Tom Campbell. He played football with the West Virginia Wesleyan eleven and began his career as a coach with West Virginia College in 1913. He coached his alma mater in 1916 and 1917 and was at Marietta College during the two following seasons. In 1921 he coached the undefeated Washington and Jefferson squad and during that season won distinction as a gridiron director.

KENTUCKY DERBY WILL BE HELD ON MAY 19TH

(By The Associated Press.)
LEXINGTON, Ky. Jan. 16.—The Kentucky Derby annual blue grass horse racing classic for a purse of $50,000 will be held at Churchill Downs May 19, the third Saturday in May or one week later than the traditional date in order not to conflict with the Preakness stake at Pimlico. It was announced here today by the Kentucky Jockey Club made formal application to the state racing commission today for that date and it was granted.

Other spring meeting dates granted for Kentucky tracks were: Lexington April 28 to May 9; Louisville May 14 to June 1; Latonia June 5 to July 7. Dates for Pimlico Park and Tristate tracks were not allotted. It was announced that these will be selected later.

GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL FOR NEGROES WILL BE DEDICATED

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The new government hospital for former negro soldiers, located at Tuskegee, Alabama, will be dedicated February 12. Secretary Mellon announced today. The secretary said also that vice president Coolidge had accepted an invitation to make the dedicatory address. An elaborate program for the formal opening of the hospital has been arranged.

So far as the Navy is concerned she has announced that proceeds from the Princeton game at Baltimore will be applied to adding seating accommodations to her new football field.

Pittsburgh has applied gridiron receipts to the construction of academic buildings. Penn State will do likewise. Right now a movement is on foot in Army and Navy circles to induce the federal authorities to permit the service institutions to charge admission to games—the object being to get funds wherewith to build an Army-Navy stadium.

Football is a producer. To greater or less extent funds derived from it aid in support of the system of intramural sports and all other major and minor sports, except at Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Pennsylvania, and certain Western universities, where baseball and basketball are at least self-supporting. Therefore football is a necessary adjunct to all systems of learning that go in for sport and practically all the major schools in this country do.

SCHOOLFIELD IS VICTOR IN GAME WITH DANVILLE

Schoolfield defeated Danville last night in a hard fought game by the score of 31 to 20.

The Schoolfield team outplayed Danville in the first half by the score of 20 to 6. In the second half Danville came back and out scored Schoolfield by 14 to 11.

Dudley, the star guard of the Danville "Y" team was out of the game with a broken nose and his floor work and shooting was sadly missed. Rustin also was knocked out before the end of the first half by a terrific bump on the head being unconscious for several minutes.

The Schoolfield boys played a fast clever game and missed few tries for goal. C. Mahaffey and Harger being especially sure shots. Goodman and Cowan are a fine pair of guards and few errors were made on them.

Riddle for Danville played great ball putting two field goals and four points out of five.

The line up:
Schoolfield Y. Pos. Danville Y.
C. Mahaffey Y. Pos. Rustin and Lea
Harger Forward Clarke
W. Mahaffey Forward Riddle
Goodman Center Heub
Cowan Guard E. Lee
Cowan Guard E. Lee

The Danville Junior team defeated the Schoolfield Juniors by the score of 15 to 5.

The Danville boys worked the five yard defense clearly and did some clever goal shooting. Bagland with three goals was high scorer. Montgomery scored all of Schoolfield points. Dudley and Harrison did some fine guarding.

The line up:
Schoolfield Pos. Danville
Montgomery Pos. Bagland and Farley
F. Jones Forward Gwynn and Hughes
Cowan Forward Trundle, Giles

Nance Center Dudley and Smith
V. Jones Guard Harrison and Blair
Field goals: Trundle, Gwynn.
Foul goals: Bagland, 3; Montgomery, 2.
Montgomery 2 out of 5.

GOVERNMENT IS TO OPEN UP TWO 9-HOLE COURSES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The tangle with which golf has gripped Washington sport lovers is attested in an announcement by Lieutenant-Colonel Clarence O. Sherrill, superintendent of buildings and grounds, that the government will open up two new public nine-hole courses here. At present the Government maintains two nine-hole and a four-hole practice course.

One of the new courses will be an addition to the present nine-hole course in beautiful East Potomac Park in the shadow of the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial, where next season will be staged the national public links championship tourney. The other is in Rock Creek Park, which leading golfers have declared to be one of the "sportiest" public links in the United States. Divided by a creek, it is built over a series of rolling hills which affords natural hazards and handicaps.

Because of the congestion of the present public links caused by the rapidly growing golf army, Colonel Sherrill has announced an unusual system of qualifications for contestants. Only the "elite" will be permitted in Rock Creek; "dubs" are to be barred there. Before playing in Rock Creek golfers must first be able to shoot 62 or better on the nine-hole course in East Potomac Park.

Another department will bring the links under strict Government supervision but only under quasi-governmental operation. Were the courses to be operated solely by the Government it would be necessary each year to go to Congress for appropriations to maintain them. Under private administration Sherrill can arrange to distribute all money over a predetermined amount a loved private operators for upkeep of the various links without the necessity of appealing to Congress, which many or may not be always amenable to the wishes of the golfers.

A small fee will be charged each player for every round, or monthly or yearly tickets may be purchased, which also carry locker and clubhouse privileges. All surplus funds will go into a general account for improving and maintaining the links. Administration expenses, it is estimated, will total about $30,000 yearly.

This includes salaries for groundkeepers and professionals. Elaborate ceremonies are planned for the formal opening of Rock Creek early next Spring. It will be the occasion of the annual Spring tournament of the Washington newspaper correspondents, in which President Harding and other high Federal authorities have agreed to participate. After the tournament the course will be thrown open to the public.

MATCH IS ARRANGED.
(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Floyd Johnson, Iowa heavyweight, and Tom Gibbons of St. Paul have been matched for a fifteen round decision bout in Madison Square Garden about March 29. It was announced today.

Boxing Association Meet Closes

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Tentative endorsement of a national boxing registration bureau, refusal to intervene in selection of championship contenders or arbitrary award of ring titles, and recommendation that the minimum age limit for boxing participants be fixed at 18, with no maximum age barrier, were outstanding developments today at the closing session of the two day convention of the National Boxing Association.

The question of intervening to prevent the proposed return heavyweight championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard came up, this time on the floor of the convention. The association decided the matter was outside its jurisdiction and that any judgment of the merits of the contest rested with individual state boxing authorities.

Discussion of the pending championship encounter which Promoter Tex Rickard proposes to hold at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, N. Y., on June 10 or July 4, developed a consensus of opinion that Willard should first engage in one or two trial bouts to show his fitness for another title combat.

Discussion of the new limit draw criticism of the New York State Boxing Commission's regulation permitting only men between 21 and 38 to participate in main bout, but it was emphasized that the action of the association was not intended to antagonize the New York body, which is not affiliated with it. Neither will the recommendation affect existing contracts some of which allow boxers under 18 to participate. It was the feeling of the convention, that fitness of the individual and not age should be the determining factor.

Richard T. Burk of New Orleans was unanimously elected president of the association.

Tex O'Rourke of New York, was elected secretary-treasurer.

SARAZEN MAY YET PARTICIPATE IN TOURNEY

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Directors of the Briar Cliff Lodge, the country club at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., which has engaged Gene Sarazen as professional may reconsider its decision not to grant him leave of absence in May and June to take part in the British open tournament, it was declared today by Chauncey Denew Steel, managing director of the lodge.

Final decision will be made after a conference with Sarazen when he returns from an exhibition tour.

All Steel added that plans for an all-star match at Briar Cliff about the time of the British open event, would be affected by Sarazen's proposed trip abroad. In this contest, he said, he intended to bring together Sarazen, Jess Switzer, Francis Ouimet and Jess Guilford.

ROWLAND IS SIGNED.

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—With the signing of Clarence Rowland, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, as a member of the American League staff of umpires, it was reported today that President Johnson plans to make two other changes in the staff.

"For Ed Walsh and William Guthrie, who were given tryouts last year, will not be back, it was said. Rowland never has acted as umpire in a game in a long exhibition game, but President Johnson believes he is temperamentally fitted.

Tiger Spirit Now Spreads

By WALTER CAMP.
(Copyright, 1923, By The Bee)

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—That indomitable Tiger spirit which gave Princeton triumphs over Chicago, Yale and Harvard last fall, today seems to be spreading out over the winter sports.

The Princeton hockey team last week proved all that the writer forecasted for it. The defeat of Harvard's hockey team by Princeton on Saturday was more noteworthy than would seem at first glance. The victory was the breaking of a nine-year-old record of defeats for all Princeton hockey teams that had traveled to play the Crimson in the latter's home.

Of course, the basketball season is not all the way over, but it looks all Princeton in that department. Certainly the basketball team that beats Princeton out will finish at the top unless there is a quite unexpected and thoroughly unusual upset. And so, likewise in swimming. The Tiger water-men apparently are doing as well as are the Tiger hockey players and the Tiger basketball tossers. Will Yale, with her star record in swimming find herself in the same boat in the water as Harvard has on the hockey rink?

The writer learns today that the plans for the memorial stadium which Bucknell will erect in honor of her boys who fell in the Great War, now will be prepared. Soldiers Field, a Cambridge, was erected in honor of the brave men of another generation. There is the Hobey Baker memorial at Princeton.

Memorials in the form of fields and stadiums are the most fitting and appropriate of all, it would seem, for they perpetuate in a practical way the thoughts of our college heroes who perished in defense of the country. Every one who is familiar with war conditions and so many of us after having been through the trying times of 1917-18—recognize that the one bright spot in the soldiers' life, is the off-hour spent in some form of games or sport.

And as to the practical side of it for a university the stadium tends to promote interest in athletics and to furnish through gate receipts the funds wherewith to carry on wholesome recreation throughout the rank and file.

ENCAMPMENT DATES SET.
(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The 24th annual encampment of the veterans of foreign wars of the United States will be held at Norfolk, Va., August 7 to 21, it was announced today.

Noted Sports Writer On The Bee Staff

LAWRENCE PERRY

Lawrence Perry, recognized authority on professional and amateur sports, will write exclusively for The Bee.

Every game played in America interests the man who plays it. There is one man in America who is tremendously interested in every game played and he has the gift of interesting every body else in what interests him. He is Lawrence Perry. In all college sports Lawrence Perry writes with a vitalizing touch—because he played in them and studied them scientifically. Mr. Perry loves and lives sports. As a writer, he was trained by Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun.

Have you ever sailed a yacht? Maybe not? But you have played baseball or paddled a canoe. You will be surprised how much there is in every man's favorite sport to interest the other fellow, if the right man tells him about it. Lawrence Perry is an authority on both professional and amateur sports. He is a trained observer and an interesting writer. Not only are his articles invariably quoted in the college press, but coaches, graduates, managers of athletics and even college presidents have often sought his advice when decisions of moment were pending.

A leading coach last season said, "When Lawrence Perry has seen a rival team play, I use his analysis of that team's style in preference to the reports of my own scouts."

Lawrence Perry organized and edited "Yachting," a successful New York magazine. In "Who's Who in America," he is credited with being the author of such novels as "Dan Merithew," "Holton of the Navy," "The Romantic Liar," "The Fullback" and "The Big Game." "For the Game's Sake," is the title of a new book published last fall. His short stories in the Saturday Evening Post, Red Book, Everybody's, Harpers, Scribners, etc., etc., have won his countrywide recognition as a short story writer. His college sports column, "For the Game's Sake," has for many years been regarded as the best column of its sort in the country. Mr. Perry takes a wide view of sports: in the football season, for instance, he will be found taking as great an interest in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska and other western schools as in the games of Princeton, Yale, Dartmouth and the Eastern colleges. In other words, Lawrence Perry's success has been not only because of his knowledge of what he writes, but also because of his broad-minded attitude towards all colleges that go in for the game.

Men prominent in athletics commend Lawrence Perry in the following quotations:

WALTER CAMP—"Lawrence Perry is ever vivid and true and any sport he touches gains an added interest."
"BIG BILL EDWARDS"—"If you miss seeing an athletic contest be sure to read his account of it."

SOL METZGER—"Lawrence Perry's view of intercollegiate sports is quite broad and fair and therefore of more than usual interest to college men."

G. FOSTER SANFORD—"Lawrence Perry's style is always commendably interesting and scrupulously clean."

Y. W. C. A. Chooses Directors At Its Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association in the association parlors last night, the report of the valuable constructive work being done by the organization was submitted by the president, the general secretary, the industrial secretary and the girls' work secretary. The report of the president, Miss Christ in the Government, was adopted and endorsing and co-operating in the work of the Y. W. C. A. The report of the general secretary, Miss Christ in the Government, was adopted and endorsing and co-operating in the work of the Y. W. C. A. The report of the industrial secretary, Miss Christ in the Government, was adopted and endorsing and co-operating in the work of the Y. W. C. A. The report of the girls' work secretary, Miss Christ in the Government, was adopted and endorsing and co-operating in the work of the Y. W. C. A.

The reports of the officers, which the organization asked be printed for the information of all friends of the Y. W. C. A. are as follows:

Annual Report Of General Secretary.

The year of 1922, the second in the history of the Danville Y. W. C. A., had a tragic beginning for the young and well organized association. It was a year of sorrow and grief, a year of loss and heartache. The association was stricken by a great calamity, a disaster of unprecedented magnitude. The association was left in a state of confusion and disorganization. The association was left with a great task to perform, a task of rebuilding and restoring the association to its former glory.

The work of the Y. W. C. A. is not a matter of uplift or of service that bends down, but a matter of friendship and with this thought in mind the Danville Y. W. C. A. has set itself the task of reaching out to serve the young womanhood of the city. The Young Women's Christian Association's service to a community and the guidance of a city cannot be given in a cold and sterile way. Neither statistics nor dollars and cents can cover the Association's work. The Association's work is a matter of the heart, a matter of the soul, a matter of the spirit.

The year 1922 closed with a membership of 105, 580 senior members and 122 junior members. It is estimated that the membership may reach 150 when the Y. W. C. A. goes out in its yearly membership campaign in a few weeks. Every young woman should be a part of this greatest organization for women in the world.

The resignation of Miss Caroline Jones, the first General Secretary of the Danville Y. W. C. A., in the early summer brought a break in the work. It has been through the efficient leadership of Miss Arbus together with the faithful members of the staff and the splendid co-operation of the Board and Committees that the Association has been able to inspire confidence and faith in the work of the Young Women's Christian Association and to pass on the vision of the bigness of the movement.

The Industrial Secretaryship was left vacant by the resignation of Miss Henry, so the Fall found the threads gathered up by a new General Secretary and a new Industrial Secretary. Fresh seed were sown in this rich soil but it took a little while for concrete results to develop. The ready response and the warmth of the welcome of the people of Danville to the new-comers was indeed gratifying.

The reception given at the Y. M. C. A. to welcome the incoming secretaries for the two organizations as well as to bid farewell to the outgoing Y. M. C. A. General Secretary afforded an opportunity to meet many of the kind people of the city.

A Get-Together supper planned and served in the early fall brought together the loyal and faithful club girls and interested friends.

The Halloween season was fittingly observed. A large party engineered by the Industrial girls was a source of much merriment. A Halloween supper by the Business Girls Club and a party for the nurses marked the gay period.

The weekly club suppers which have proved such an asset to the Industrial Department have been happy occasions, and through the ingenuity and careful planning of the Industrial Secretary a nutritious, well balanced meal has been served each Friday at a minimum cost.

A dainty luncheon for Board members to meet Miss Grace Osborne, new City Secretary of the Southern Association, was an enjoyable affair.

The Christmas season was bright and cheerful with parties and bits of service in which the unfortunate were helped.

A Merry Twelfth Night party, so well planned and thought out by the Membership Committee, was the crowning effort of the social side of the work.

Not only were suppers and other good times enjoyed by our Y. W. C. A. family but we have been indeed glad to share our lovely rooms with other organizations, for ours is a house of friendship in which we want others to have a part. The Business and Professional Women's Club have had two suppers. Luncheon was served the Lions Club by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. The Teachers Association had a delightful party. The Nurses Association had a supper and meeting a few days ago.

During the Fair the Y. W. C. A. filled a room in its attractive rest room where the foot-sore and weary were glad to stop and rest. Old and young, large and small to the number of 130 found the little room a joy and a comfort. Not only was the little room a wayside rest station and a day nursery but it proved to be a bureau of information as well.

The Religious Work Committee has been faithful in its efforts to quicken the spiritual life of the Association. Sunday Vespers have been held during the months of November and December. The Industrial girls have been hostesses at one vesper meeting. The Girl Reserves had a Sunday of their own planning and the Business Girls are soon to have a Sunday. A talk on the "Festivities of the Year" was given by the General Secretary. A beautiful interpretation of Van Dyke's "Other Wise Man" was given at the Christmas vesper service by the Industrial girls. World Fellowship Week was observed with a World Fellowship Supper and a Pageant "Who Can This Saint Be?" The "Dolphins of the Dollar" a film illustrating the comprehensive program of the Y. W. C. A., was shown at the Broadway Theatre.

The Girl Reserve work was taken up anew by Miss Erna Anderson early in November. An active High School group and a Grade School group are earnest Girl Reserves and are meeting regularly.

A Gynnasium class was opened early in November and taught by Miss Martha A. Kelly of the R. M. I. The class is increasing in numbers as well as interest and enthusiasm.

A class in Current Events, which we called the "Keep Posted" class, opened in November to interest those who wanted to keep in touch with the happenings of the day. Dr. J. M. Shelburne kindly consented to lead the class.

One evening a week the Municipal Hall has been used for roller skating. The girls were enthusiastic over this wholesome form of recreation at first, but Christmas intervening it may be difficult to rekindle the interest.

No report of the Y. W. C. A. work, which would be complete without a word to those bits of service that perhaps are not grouped under departments, but are so far reaching in their helpfulness.

The little kitchenette is a most popular spot at noon each day and on Saturday at the supper hour. The rest room is in reality a haven of rest to many tired girls. The unemployed girl is more and more looking to the Y. W. C. A. as her friend in need. The employer in search of help has confidence in the sagacity and judgment of the Association and looks to us for the type of person he seeks.

Those in need of rooms whether for temporary or permanent use feel sure the Y. W. C. A. has just the right place for them.

Truly are the opportunities for service to girls and to the community rich. Ever wider grows the scope of our influence. If we have accomplished all that we have with our limited equipment how much larger would be our opportunity for service if we could but extend our horizon.

A boarding home for girls is a more vital need than is realized. 600 girls are in Danville away from home who need just the protection a Y. W. C. A. home would give them. A cafeteria would not only be a source of blessing to the wage earning girl but it would be a community asset as well.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria has a nationwide reputation for their home cooked food at modest rates.

A summer camp where tired girls could relax in the great out-of-doors is another long felt want.

In presenting this report it is with the realization that there is reason for gratitude for all the success that has attended the achievements in the past, and that there is need of prayer for future and present wants and needed trust in him who is able to do, exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.

Respectfully submitted,

Estelle J. Hincheliffe, General Secretary

Annual Report Of Industrial Secretary

The Industrial Department covers the club work done with girls in the manufacturing plants, the stores and the business offices. There are two organized clubs from this group of girls, one being known as the Industrial Girls' Club, the other as the Young Business Girls Club.

Up until this Fall there were three Industrial Clubs, one from Moravia, one from Knitting Mills and one from Lorillard. During the summer a River side Club was organized.

Seven girls went to Conference from these clubs on money raised largely by the girls. One girl, Aime Moxley, went to the Bryn Mawr Summer School for Women Workers in Industry. She obtained a scholarship.

This course is offered at Bryn Mawr in order to enable girls in industry to continue their education along lines that will help them in their work.

In the Fall a setting-up week and camping party was held and plans for the ensuing year were discussed. After holding one or two separate meetings the four clubs decided to unite into one club to be known as the Industrial Girls Club. This club holds its meetings on Friday nights. A club supper for twenty-five cents is served at six o'clock and the girls who are unable to come to supper come later to the meeting. Since the reorganization of the club it has increased rapidly in membership.

The Industrial Secretary visits the different mills and factories once a week. At the beginning of last year the Business Club underwent reorganization, several clubs uniting into one. Two girls went from this Club to Conference. The money for this was raised by the well remembered Carcus given by the Business group last year. This club is planning to put on a membership campaign in the near future.

The activities of the clubs are numerous. Last spring a Mother and Daughter banquet was held. It proved a great success. During the summer months the regular activities of the clubs were suspended. The time was occupied with hayrides, swimming parties and week-end camping trips.

In November the two clubs gave a World Fellowship Pageant illustrating how the Y. W. C. A. meets the needs of girls of all races and in all lands.

Thanksgiving they took baskets to eight needy families. During the Christmas season they also thought of others. The Industrial Club gave some Christmas Tableaux and sang the Christmas carols at Hilltop. They also took three well filled baskets to needy families. The Business group gave a party to about fifteen little children whose names they had secured from the Community Welfare and the Wesley House. Each child was given a present and a bag of Christmas candy, nuts and fruit.

During the fall a party was given by the Department to the nurses from General and Edmunds Hospitals. They expressed a desire to form a basket-ball club. A coach was secured and they met once but it is hard for them to do any real club work because of their duties at the hospital.

The two organized clubs try to adapt their program to the needs of the girls. As the Association purpose is fourfold, the club program tries to (Continued on page eleven.)

A NEW IDEA IN USED CAR SALES—A new and unique sales plan for used automobiles is announced by Dan Valley Motor Company. Under this plan every purchaser of a used car receives an engraved certificate signed by the Dan Valley Motor Company's organization which sets forth the actual condition of the car and certifies to the facts thereon stated. From this comes the name, "Certified Used Car" which The Dan Valley Motor Company applies to every used automobile sold by them under this sale policy.

The certificate bears a seal, called the "Seal of Satisfaction" and the purpose of the plan is to give the used car buyer an absolute assurance that he is getting a car exactly as represented.

There have been many plans devised for selling used cars, but few that were devoted to the reassurance of the purchaser. "Certified" used cars seem to squarely meet the purchaser's requirements and to establish the same degree of confidence and certainty that applies in the purchase of a new car.

"There is absolutely no reason why any man cannot safely buy a used automobile," says C. K. Carter of Dan Valley Motor Company.

"The value is there in a good car, carefully inspected and thoroughly tested. We pledge the entire resources of this organization to insure the satisfaction of our used car customer and our certificate will, we believe, clear up all the uncertainty that has heretofore been associated with the purchase of a used automobile." 1-17 R17 B 2 T.

(Continued from page 11) develop each girl along physical, social, mental and spiritual lines. Each one of us needs to be developed along these lines in order that we may live, be happy, and have a better life. Report of Girl's Work

The Girl Reserves were organized in Danville by Miss Elizabeth McHenry. Clubs were formed in the High School, Mt. Vernon and Calvary Methodist and the First Presbyterian churches. The High School club met regularly at the High School and was sometimes the hostess of the other clubs.

Two High School club girls were sent to the Girl's Conference at Sweetbriar College, June 20 to 29, 1922. They reported quite an enjoyable and profitable trip and returned building over with new ideas for the year.

In November I opened the year with a party for girls of teen age. Two clubs were organized, one the High School club with an enrollment of thirty-two and a Grade School club with fifteen members. These girls are planning big things for their clubs, and hope to send at least five girls to the mid-winter conference in Lynchburg in February.

We meet once a week at the Y. W. C. A., with an average attendance of twenty-five. We are planning a Dramatic Club and several classes for study.

Not being able to give all my time to club work, the girls aren't able to do as many things as they would like. We hope to have a girl's secretary who can give her entire time to this work.

Respectfully submitted, Erna L. Anderson Girl's Work Secretary

TRUSTEES' SALE—Pursuant to the terms of two deeds of trust from Annie Barnes Wilson and husband, dated October 17th, 1919 and December 3rd, 1920, respectively, recorded in the clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of Danville, Va., in deed book 107 at page 403 and deed book 111 at page 467, default having been made in the payments of the debts therein secured, and at the request of the beneficiary in said deeds, we will offer for sale at public auction, on the premises, on Wednesday, January 24th, 1923, at 4:00 O'clock, P. M.

That certain lot of land, situated in Danville, Va., fronting fifty feet on the northern side of Whitwell street and running back therefrom between parallel lines 140 feet, being the same lot conveyed in the above mentioned deeds of trust.

EYTINGE, FREED, PLEDGES
LIFE TO AID CONVICTS

BY JACK JUNGMEYER
(Special to The Bee)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—"I'm going to devote the rest of my career to reclaiming human wastage in American prisons."

That's the ambition of Louis Victor Eytinge, hero of the most remarkable success story in a generation, who from a mere penitentiary inmate made himself a million-dollar business leader while he remained behind prison bars.

"Fifty per cent. of prisoners are not reclaimable under the present system," Eytinge said on his arrival here after his release from prison. "I believe convicts should be classified at the beginning, mentally and physically. Then their terms would be devoted to education, not punishment."

"Crime costs the nation's liberty loan a year. Fifty per cent. of prisoners are recidivists (two- or three-timers), responsible for 50 per cent. of crime. Suppose we could reduce recidivism by 25 per cent. we could thus stop a great chunk off the four billion cost annually."

Fifteen years ago, Eytinge was shoved into the Arizona state penitentiary under life sentence on conviction of murder. He was expected to die from tuberculosis within two months.

Today, just liberated on parole, he can take his pick of several $25,000 a year positions.

The clang of lock-up bolts had a miraculous effect upon Eytinge. He nursed himself of disease by lying naked 10 hours a day in the sunshine of the "lunger's ward" and stuffing himself with prison food.

Then Eytinge discovered he possessed a positive genius for organization and salesmanship. He was a low-prisoner at work manufacturing things which he sold outside through advertising letters.

So effective were these letters the prison was soon swamped with mail and Eytinge was conducting a $5,000 a month business.

Within a few years he was practically running the prison.

Spring Hints Are Seen in the Newest Styles

There's a hint of spring in advance style models. Sleeveless coats are predicted with long-sleeved dresses. They will make a new version of the three-piece suit and an evening already in silks for southern wear. Another probable favorite is the coat with turnover collar and loose sleeves. These samples can't be spoken of as authoritative yet, but they're much in favor at winter resorts. Usually this is regarded as an indication of fashions to come.

GEN. JAS. MACGILL
PASSES AWAY

(By The Associated Press)

PULASKI, Va., Jan. 16.—General James MacGill, 78, died at the home of relatives here tonight, following a brief illness of pneumonia. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it was stated the body will be taken to Richmond for burial.

General MacGill served throughout the Civil War, participating in the battle of Gettysburg and other notable engagements. He was twice married, his first wife being a niece of General J. E. B. Stuart, and the second a daughter of General A. P. Hill.

OVERDOSE OF CANTHRIS
FATAL TO JERSEY MEN

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Two Jersey men died in hospitals today from overdoses of cantharis.

Edward Huk, 28, of Newark, N. J., a barber, told how he lay dying at dawn in the Newark City Hospital, that a week ago, his friend John Schneider, 34, of Whippany, N. J., a pool parlor keeper, gave him a dose of the extract of cantharis.

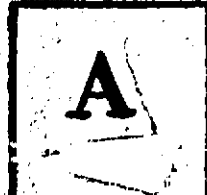

Last Thursday, he said, he met Schneider in a Prince street restaurant in Newark, and made a wager, which could take the greater dose. Huk said he took one and a half teaspoonsful and Schneider immediately doubled the dose.

Both became violently ill. After returning to their homes, physicians sent them to hospitals—Huk to the Newark City and Schneider to All Saints Hospital, Morristown.

Early today when told he was dying, Huk informed the police. Schneider had a large supply of the drug. The police told Schneider he also was dying and asked him to reveal the source of his supply. Schneider refused to tell, and then died.

A PUZZLE A DAY

A farmer had a square field, as shown in the diagram. One-quarter (A) of the field was planted. The farmer desired to divide the remainder of the field into four parts, all of equal size and shape. How did he do it?

Yesterday's answer:
There were 11 boys, and they found 25 cents. For each to have 3 cents, 8 cents more were needed. If each took 2 cents, 3 cents remained.

First Woman Honored by Athletic Union

MRS. JESSIE L. PATON
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—In accordance with the new plan to let women, as far as possible, control women's athletics, Mrs. Jessie L. Paton has the distinction of being the first woman handicapper to be chosen for woman's track and field events by the Amateur Athletic Union.

Mrs. Paton, formerly a star of the track and field, is now president of the Morningside Women's Athletic Club of New York.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE
GETS BEER RESOLUTION

ALBANY, Jan. 16.—A current resolution, intended to memorialize Congress to modify the Volstead act as to permit traffic in beer and wine, was introduced in both Houses of the Legislature tonight by the Democratic leaders. Senator James A. Walker and Assemblyman Charles D. Donohue. In the Senate the resolution was referred to the Finance Committee, but in the Assembly, on objection by Simon L. Adler, Republican floor leader, action on it was deferred to tomorrow.

Senator John J. Dunnigan, Democrat, of the Bronx, reintroduced tonight his bill designed to repeal the Mulligan-Cage prohibition enforcement statutes. The measure were the first to be presented to the 1923 Senate, but were withdrawn by Senator Dunnigan on the first day of the session. Companion measures already have been introduced in the Lower House.

HONOR FOR JANE ADDAMS

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Prof. Graham Wallas, of London University, has taken steps to propose the name of Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, for the 1923 Nobel peace prize. Prof. George Unwin and Samuel Alexander of Manchester University, formally second his motion.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Better Cars at Lower Prices
The present selling prices of Ford Cars have been made possible through—1.—Sales of over a million cars a year.
2.—Standardizing on one model over a period of years.
3.—The consumption of raw and finished products at a cost of approximately one million cars per day.
4.—The Financial Strength of the Ford Motor Co., which has no bonded indebtedness to meet.

Ford Cars have never been as low in price, Ford Cars have never been as high in quality.
